The World Games are the pinnacle in the careers of 3,000 athletes competing at the highest level in 30+ diverse, popular and spectacular sports. The seventh edition of the quadrennial multi-sport games is held in the heart of Germany – in Duisburg and its partner cities – over eleven summer days.

The official film of 2005 Duisburg is a tribute to the men and women in pursuit of sporting excellence on many fields of play. Top athletes from close to 100 nations go for gold on terra firme, in the water or in the air. The camera keeps up with them everywhere, providing insights into their sports, and recording their exploits in the fierce contests. While Fiji's rugby sevens squad defends its World Games title, the viewer, too, is put on the pitch. And then the camera heads for the lake shores to zoom in on life savers – or into the wild blue yonder, alongside the athletes in skydiving!

The World Games 2005 Duisburg – their 30+ sports, their ceremonies and cultural programs – fascinate more than 500,000 spectators on location. Expect 'fascinations worldgames', the DVD containing over 100 minutes of the very best coverage, to do the same for you!
